OUR ASHLAND

Ashland, Ohio is one of twenty-two "Ashlands" in the United States. We invite you to visit often and learn all we have to offer! You'll find Ashland nestled between Cleveland and Columbus, at exit 186 off Interstate 71, some of the most beautiful countryside in Ohio. It is a traditional, yet modern; friendly, yet respectful town, just far enough away from the frustrations of urban life, yet close enough to enjoy its benefits.

Ashland has many fun activities and events to satisfy each member of your family and has become a well-respected center for the arts beginning with the Ashland High School's Archer Auditorium, hosting the Ashland Symphony Orchestra. Ashland University's Hugo Young Theatre hosts world-renowned speakers, musicians, and plays throughout the year. The Ashland Symphony Orchestra helps our historic Myers Band Shell come alive in the summer along with a fantastic Summer Concert Series that is free and open to the public on Sunday and Thursday evenings.

Summer is jam-packed with many great activities: farmers' markets, car shows, Music on Main events, Ashland Art Fest, and the Ashland BalloonFest. BalloonFest hosts thousands of folks and pilots from all over the country at the end of June. The evening Balloon Glows, music and stage performances, along with the balloon races, make for a fun-filled weekend. Stay for the best fireworks show at the Ashland Community Stadium! Award-winning Ashland Chautauq, helps you encounter history through first person historical portrayals. Trained actor/scholars assume the character of historical figures and present living history performances in the open air surroundings of the Myers Memorial Band Shell. For more history, we invite you to take a walking tour of our Center Street Historic District and visit the Ashland County Historical Museum. Just a short drive south, you'll discover the turn-of-the-century Hayesville Opera House and Downtown Loudville offering a variety of shopping and dining opportunities.

And, if you're looking to make some yuletide memories, you'll want to be in Ashland, Ohio the first Saturday in December for our amazing Christmas parade, tree lighting, fireworks display. You will feel like you were just transported into a Hallmark movie!

Ashland, Ohio is also known for its parks & recreation facilities - hosting many regional football, softball, golf, tennis and soccer tournaments. In fact, there are 14 parks within the City Limits. The Ashland County Park District boasts 18 parks, all with activities for young and old.

Downtown Ashland makes a fine launch pad for any visit to Ashland County. The city matches its varied lineup of cafes and eateries with a broad gamut of stores; from national chains to specialty boutiques and mom-and-pop outlets. And if you're looking to get out and enjoy our forests, fields, and rivers, make a beeline for Fry, Feather, Fox Outfitters, an outdoor superstore beloved by hunters, anglers, campers, and other sportspeople.

The southern tip of Ashland County is home to the Mohican State Park and Forest. There are many campsgrounds, canoe livery, and recreational businesses offering something for everyone.

Whether you're interested in participating in our exciting events or simply enjoying a relaxing family outing of shopping and dining, Ashland County is a great place to visit!
