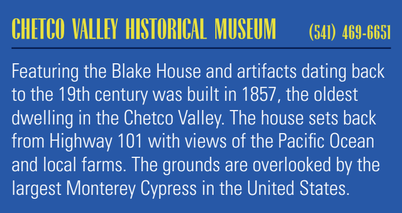
AZALEA PARK (541) 469-1103

The premier outdoor gathering place, the "Crown Jewel" of Brookings, with over 6 acres lined with trees and paths showcasing ancient azalea, picnic areas, gazebo, ball fields, snackshack, bandshell, Kidtown Playground, and Capella by the Sea. The American Music Festival, Wild Rivers Music Festival, and Nature's Coastal Holiday are family favorite events held at the Park. Azalea Park is available for birthday parties, ball games, weddings, reunions, civic affairs, summer concerts and more.



CAPELLA BY THE SEA (541) 469-1103

An architectural masterpiece surrounded by the trees and gardens of Azalea Park with views of the Pacific Ocean ideal for memorable occasions. Rustic and yet elegant; Elmo Williams had this sanctuary built in memory of his wife Lorraine, inspired by E Fay Jones and designed by Jones associates.

CHETCO POINT PARK

A nine acre beach with picnic tables, horseshoe pits, tide pools, sandy beaches, covered path, wooden bridge, with a bluff offering panoramic views. St. George's Reef Lighthouse, seals, and whales are visible from this point during their seasons.

CHETCO VALLEY HISTORICAL MUSEUM (541) 469-6651

Featuring the Blake House and artifacts dating back to the 19th century was built in 1857, the oldest dwelling in the Chetco Valley. The house sets back from Highway 101 with views of the Pacific Ocean and local farms. The grounds are overlooked by the largest Monterey Cypress in the United States.

CULTURAL ARTS

Brookings-Harbor is plentiful with numerous art galleries & two performing art theaters, world class restaurants, distilleries, breweries, and pubs where local & visiting musicians bring an artistic flavor enjoyed by locals and tourists alike.

JAPANESE BOMBSITE TRAIL TH18 (541) 469-3181

Leads you to the site where one of only four bombs were dropped by the Japanese on the continental US during WWII. The one-mile hike has areas of incline, an observation platform overlooking a small clearing in the forest with a stake marking the bomb's impact location.

KALMIOPSIS WILDERNESS

A harsh, rugged area of approximately 180,000 acres that includes the headwater basin of the Chetco and North Fork Smith Rivers and portion of the Illinois River canyon with elevations from 500-5,000 feet with 153 miles of trails. The Kalmiopsis Wilderness is known for its diversity of plant life and complex geological areas of the country.

LUCKY 7 CASINO (866) 777-7170

Open 24-hours a day year-round with slots, bingo, black jack, poker, also featuring the House of Howonquet restaurant, the Howonquet Lodge with 71 rooms and views of the Pacific Ocean, Club 7 Sports Bar, and the Tolowa Event Center. Lucky 7 Casino is named the "Friendliest Casino on America's Wild Rivers Coast".

PORT OF BROOKINGS HARBOR (541) 469-2218

The busiest recreational Port on the Oregon coast generating more than 31,000 trips for more than 95,000 boaters. The Port is the safest bar on the west coast located at the mouth of Chetco River just a few miles from the California State Line. Fishermen journey along the Chetco River Bar in search of Snapper, Ling Cod, Halibut and when in season, Chinook and Coho Salmon. Many local fishermen also keep pots handy to try for the delicious Dungeness crab and shrimp. Guide services and charters are available most of the year and they are skilled navigators at locating schools of fish.

SALMON RUN GOLF COURSE (541) 469-4888

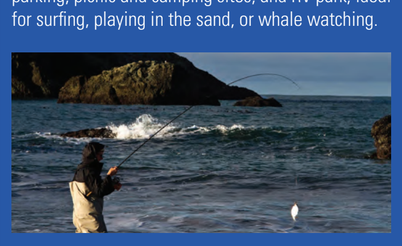
Located 3.5 miles inland from the beautiful Brookings Harbor. The 18-hole golf retreat is surrounded by nature with challenging courses along Chetco River. Tees stretch from 5,433 yards to over 6,400 yards lending itself to golfers at every skill level. A restaurant, full-service pro-shop and excellent PGA teaching staff is ready to make your experience even more enjoyable.

SAMUEL H. BOARDMAN STATE SCENIC CORRIDOR (541) 469-3181
(OREGON COAST TRAIL)

A hikers dream with 18 ocean-hugging miles of secluded beaches, offshore rock formations, viewpoints and is a migration route for birds linking summer and winter breeding. Boardman's beaches, bluffs and trails make the most secluded and picturesque portion of the Oregon Coast Trail that spans the entire 362-mile coastline.

SPORTHAVEN BEACH

Is situated between the ocean and the harbor and can be accessed by entering the Beachfront RV Park on Boat Basin Road. Sporthaven Beach offers ample parking, picnic and camping sites, and RV park; ideal for surfing, playing in the sand, or whale watching.



STATE PARKS

Abundant in Brookings-Harbor with Crissey Field State Park nestled up against the California state line featuring an Oregon Welcome Center, secluded beach and trails, and a overlook deck with picnic benches, and restrooms.

THE REDWOOD NATURE TRAIL
OREGON REDWOOD TRAIL

A 2.5 mile trail loop through a redwood grove above the Chetco River in the Siskiyou National Forest near Loeb State Park. Larger redwoods will be found at the higher elevation on the trail with Redwood trees up to 250 feet tall and many over 800 years old. The trail connects with the Riverview Trail leading to Alfred A. Loeb State Park.
