POINTS OF INTEREST IN THE LAKES AREA

A CENTER FOR THE ARTS (AC4TA)

The core of the arts scene in Fergus Falls, A Center for the Arts, is located downtown in the historic Fergus Theatre. A Center for the Arts features:

- Live theater, music and dance
- Local, professional and touring performers
- Visual arts exhibitions, workshops and literary events
- The Mighty WurliTzer Theater Organ, refurbished to take advantage of the building's acoustics

124 W. Lincoln Avenue | (218) 998-ARTS (2787) | www.FergusArts.org

CENTRAL LAKES TRAIL

Meandering through scenic prairies, parks and lakes country, it's a serene location for staying active outdoors no matter the season.

- Begins in Fergus Falls and runs 55 miles southeast to Osakis, where it joins the Lake Wobegon Trail continuing to St. Joseph for total distance of 135 miles
- Fairly level grade, paved, 14-feet-wide - enjoyable ride for all ages and abilities
- Used to walk, jog, bike or in-line skate during the warmer months
- Snowmobile trail (without studs) in the winter

Trail maps available at the Chamber office or www.CentralLakesTrail.com

FERGUS FALLS CITY PARKS

You will find hours of entertainment throughout our park system with horseshoe pits, trails, tennis courts, and playground equipment. In addition to recreation activities, parks are a popular location for walking especially along the one-mile loop around Lake Alice lined with historic homes. Winter activities include cross country skiing, sledding, snowmobiling and ice-skating at the new Community Arena or outdoor rinks at Cleveland Elementary, Lake Alice and at Whitford-Channing. Delagoon Recreation Area, the city's largest park, is home to softball, baseball and soccer complexes, as well as a campground, boat launch, fishing pier, a swimming beach on Pebble Lake and easy access to the Central Lakes Trail. Plus, a brand new 27-hole disc golf course.

- Over 500 acres of parks and recreation areas
- Concerts & Movies in the Park Thursday evenings June-August at Roosevelt Park
- Photo Opportunity with "Otto" the giant otter statue at Adams Park by Grotto Lake

GLENDALOUGH STATE PARK

Just a short drive from Fergus Falls northeast of Battle Lake, Glendalough offers a quiet respite from civilization. Hiking trails meander along five lakes, through rich woods and blooming prairies. An information kiosk at the park entrance provides maps and orientation. Glendalough includes:

- Annie Battle Lake, a 335-acre non-motorized Heritage Fishery
- Cart-in and canoe-in campsites along the shore for an excellent starting point for exploration.
- The restored, historic Glendalough Lodge details the park history as a private retreat and game farm
- Two interpretive trails with many observation decks provide year-round wildlife viewing
- Picnicking and swimming on two sandy lakes
- Groomed trails in winter for cross-country skiing and snowshoeing

HISTORIC KIRKBRIDE PARK

The former Regional Treatment Center has been a highly visible landmark for over 100 years and is the newest city park destination. Development of the campus includes modern yet historic apartments now available. Plus, planning is ongoing for redeveloping the main building and other campus assets in 2017.

- Named for Dr. Thomas Kirkbride, whose principle of "beauty is therapy" including fresh air and ample light, was considered state-of-the-art design in mental health hospitals in the 1880s
- Constructed with elements of Roman Renaissance and Gothic influence
- Built around the centerpiece; the eight-story brick tower, capped with a red tile roof
- Placed on the National Register of Historic Places with national significance as one of the only fully intact examples of Kirkbride buildings

INSPIRATION PEAK

As part of a moraine (heaped rock material), Inspiration Peak is the result of the last great push of glacial ice across Minnesota. It's a great place for family hikes and picnics, and a good place to watch the fall hawk migration or take in sweeping views of fall color changes and the surrounding terrain. Inspiration Peak features:

- The second highest point in Minnesota
- Panoramic view of nine lakes and three counties
- Benches along the surfaced path, making the steep spots a bit more manageable
- Located 10 miles south of Clitherall on County Highway 5, then east on County Road 38

KADDATZ GALLERIES

Kaddatz Galleries, located in the renovated Kaddatz Hotel in historic downtown Fergus Falls, is home to the works of Charles Beck. Beck, a local artist whose work interprets Minnesota landscapes, earned widespread respect of both artists and collectors globally. The gallery features:

- Permanent and rotating collections of works portraying a variety of media representative of regional artists
- On-going educational programs, such as hands-on art instruction, demonstrations, and art appreciation for all age groups including children
- Collaborates with arts organizations and artists in the region

MAPLEWOOD STATE PARK

Maplewood's extensive trail system attracts hikers, horseback riders, and cross-country skiers. From summer's abundance to winter's serenity with amazing fall color and spring's beautiful emergence in between, the park offers nature and outdoor enthusiasts a reason to visit year-round. The park features:

- 9,000 acres of lake-filled terrain abundant with wildlife and heavily forested scenic views
- Swimming beaches, boat ramps, numerous picnic areas, hiking trails, camping and scenic park drives
- 150 bird species and 50 species of mammals
- More than 20 lakes, three of which have trailer access while others are accessible by portage offering water lovers a number of places to swim, fish, boat or simply relax
- Located 20 miles north of Fergus Falls on State Hwy. 108

OTTER TAIL COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY MUSEUM

The Otter Tail County Historical Society Museum has been recognized by the Minnesota Historical Society as one of the top county museums in the state. Open year round, the museum is located on Lincoln Avenue in Fergus Falls. The museum features:

- Chronicles of the development of Otter Tail County from the Native Americans to the early 20th century
- A stroll down Main Street of 100 years ago, see history come to life in one of the dioramas
- Extensive genealogical resources
- Guided walking tours and special events
- Self-guided historical tour brochures, available at the museum and the Chamber office

OTTER TRAIL SCENIC BYWAY

This 150-mile loop meanders its way through scenic Otter Tail County, home to more than 1,000 of our state's famous lakes. The well-marked Otter Trail has been described as "a delightful drive guiding travelers over rolling hills thick with maple, oak, and birch trees; past shimmering lakes and ponds sprinkled with white and yellow water lilies; and through fascinating towns alive with culture, history, and fun things to see and do." The byway features:

- 23 sites including interpretive signs, bike and walking trails, picnic facilities and opportunities to view wildlife and the surrounding terrain
- An area rich in tradition from 19th century flour mills to beautiful prairie lands and wooded parks as well as spectacular roadside scenery
- Detailed map available at the Chamber office

PHELPS MILL COUNTY PARK

Phelps Mill, a picturesque county park and former site of the Maine Roller Mills, is one of the most photographed places in west central Minnesota. Located 20 miles northeast of Fergus Falls near Otter Tail Lake, Phelps Mill is situated directly on the Otter Tail River.

- Tour the mill, fish in the stream or picnic along the river
- Originally built in 1889
- No longer in operation, but enjoyed for its historic interest and beautiful natural setting
- Phelps Mills Festival, a fine arts and craft show, 2nd weekend in July

PINE TO PRAIRIE BIRDING TRAIL

Bird lovers frequently travel the Pine to Prairie Birding Trail beginning in Fergus Falls. Explore the 45 official birding sites located along or near the trail. Most sites are located on public land or private reserves that are open to the public. The sites along the trail offer some of the most spectacular birding in the state, with over 275 species identified. Along the way, enjoy the scenic beauty and friendly communities from Fergus Falls to Roseau, MN nearly 200 miles north. Spring, summer and fall offer an abundance of birds, while winter is an exciting time to see winter specialties

PRAIRIE WETLANDS LEARNING CENTER (PWLC)

The Prairie Wetlands Learning Center, located near Interstate 94 and State Highway 210 East, is operated by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and focuses on the understanding of prairies and wetlands. A wide variety of educational programs and special events are offered throughout the year. The PWLC includes:

- 330 acres of native and restored prairie, 28 wetlands and an oak savannah
- A wide variety of plants and wildlife
- Nearly 3-1/2 miles of foot trails and 1/2 mile of fully accessible trails open dusk until dawn
- The Visitor Center, open weekdays 8am-4pm, houses the Bluestem Store with nature-related books and gifts, 2,500 sq. ft. exhibit area, and a theater
- A dining hall, classrooms, greenhouse and a dormitory

RIVERWALK

In the heart of Downtown Fergus Falls, you can enjoy a leisurely stroll on the Riverwalk which runs along the Otter Tail River. Interpretative signs are located near Central (Wright) Dam, depicting the beginning of Fergus Falls and the old days of grain milling. Access to the Riverwalk is available from Union Avenue, Court Street (right next to the Chamber office), behind City Hall and via an accessible ramp located off Cascade Street

SNOWMOBILE TRAILS

Snowmobile enthusiasts agree that the quality and beauty of our trail system makes Fergus Falls a great destination. Trails are groomed regularly during the season. Otter Tail County offers nearly 300 miles of groomed trails from Maplewood State Park to Inspiration Peak and traveling through the cities of Fergus Falls, Dalton, Ashby, Clitherall, Battle Lake, Underwood and Rothsay. Trail maps are available the Chamber office.

Visit www.MNSnowmobiler.org for trail conditions

VETERAN'S WALK OF FLAGS

The Veteran's Walk of Flags displays nearly 2,000 flags in memory of and honoring veterans with ties to the community. The flags, which are put up and taken down by local volunteers each day that they are flown, are quite a sight to see as you drive or walk through downtown. A labor of love and show of patriotism are on display in various locations throughout downtown Fergus Falls, including City Hall, the Courthouse lawn, NP Park and Veteran's Park. Weather permitting the flags are flown annually on:

- Loyalty Day
- Armed Forces Day
- Flag Day
- Independence Day
- Labor Day
- POW/MIA Day
- Remembrance Day
- Columbus Day
- Veteran's Day
