WELCOME TO GRATIOT COUNTY!

A pleasant and prosperous county located in the very center of Michigan's Lower Peninsula, Gratiot County offers an eclectic mix of urban and rural lifestyles. Friendly small towns and villages, framed by lush woods, abundant farm fields and natural open areas, make Gratiot County a place you'll want to call home, one where rush hour lasts a few minutes and time is measured in miles not minutes.

Within the county, there are a host of choices for your leisure time. Choose from an assortment of public parks, many with swimming and sporting activities. If golf is your game, try one of Gratiot County's six courses. For those who enjoy hiking, there's a wide assortment of trails to explore, including one of the largest woodland preserves in the state along Maple River. For biking enthusiasts, the Fred Meijer Heartland trail begins in Alma and travels west through Gratiot County into neighboring Montcalm County.

Within the county's State Game preserves and many private acres, hunters will find abundant opportunity to track deer, turkey, waterfowl, pheasants and other Michigan game. For those that prefer fishing, a variety of rivers and streams run through the county. And, a canoe trail down the Pine River takes you on a relaxing and scenic tour of Gratiot County.

Off the beaten path, a few minutes from the freeway exits, you can still find Main Street with its historic buildings and one of a-kind businesses. Stroll the sidewalks and take time to experience a variety of offerings from the traditional hardware store to specialty shops. Once you're done browsing, be sure to relax in one of the local eateries.
