Macon County is rich in tradition and history

OUR HISTORY

Lafayette, while the Industrial Park here is currently sustaining expansion.

In the eastern portion of the county in the town of Red Boiling Springs, three historical hotels built between 1890 and 1924, have been maintained and are still operating. It was their elegance and the numerous mineral springs and baths that made these resorts a 1920's tourist mecca.

Its county seat, Lafayette, sits only 60 miles from Nashville, TN and 50 miles from Bowling Green, KY. The Macon County Courthouse, built in 1933, is positioned with dignity on the square in
